

Starts at the dying scene of the main character Som.

#All the scenes from movie goes in fast reverse

#starts

#Som doing handstand push ups on a mountain, no, (camera zooms out and rotates), he not pushing up on the mountain he is lifting the mountain up and down.

phone rings :hey I think we told you to not to be late.

Som :yeah I'm on my way. I'll be there in 5.

*Devil background Song playing

#shifts to a burning town

Gangster 1: I think it is all clear, all of the people ran away and the ones were killed.

Gangster 2:yeah and all the plants are ruined too just as Boss said.

Boss: (comes with a head in his hand)ooh yeah baby that was relaxing.

*#Someone landed with a wide thrust(all the dust flowing in the air)
As the dust clears he becomes visible*

Boss: sir we cleared all of the town just as you said.

That person was Som*

Som: great, where is he?

Boss: he escaped.

Som: I told you to capture him at all costs.

Boss: we almost captured him but then they came to his rescue and u were late.

*Som: I see, so there was no way you could have captured him.
Oh man they are such a pain in the ass*

Ganster 1(whispering):who were they?*

Ganster 2:U don't know!

They were the inners

Gangster 1:inners?

Ganster 2:they are the saviours of the world.

Legends says they are not even from earth.

Gangster 1:how many of them are there?

G2: There are seven

#He mentions all

First there is Mili the hothead.

G1: hothead?

G2: yes she is the fastest entity in the universe or as they say but she got a problem in controlling her temper.

G1: That makes sense

G2: then there is Brad the void

G1: void?

he has the ability to teleport through space but he has no trust in anyone besides there General and one other inner. He is just like a void all alone by himself. Just empty.

G2: got it

G1: then there is Tom the mature one.

G2: what's his superpower?

G1: his IQ is his superpower

G2: what?

G1: yeah he can think of millions of possibilities in a second and act accordingly or in other words he can predict future.

G2: wow, he is cool.

G1: yup then there is Shrine the rock.

G2: Shrine?

G1: he is super strong like super-duper strong. Breaking meteors is nothing for him, but as hard as his body is as kind and sweet his heart is.

G2: She sounds like a cry-baby.

G1: he kind of is.

Then there is Mrs. Bliss

G2: Mrs.?

G1: yes, she got that prefix because of humans huge respect towards her. She has the power to heal anyone 100x faster than the time originally would have taken. Some says she can also treat the dead ones to life.

G2: woah she is like a goddess you know

G1: what are you talking about ,she is a goddess, all the inners are u idiot. And there is there General.

G2: he sounds like a badass.

G1: he is one, he comprises of all the power of rest of the inners.

G2: he is a one man army then.

G1: yup he is but that much power takes a toll on him. He is too weak now because of that much strain. He was made General because of his well thoughts but his body was kind of weak to handle that much power. Though right now no inner is able to take him on they all love him and respect him as much as they fear him.

G2: is there any way he could be treated.

G1: how the hell would I know that u idiot.

G2: I thought u might know this too.

G1: nah dude I told u all that I had heard from elders.

G2: what do you think Som will win or the General in a head on fight?

G1: I don't know man but General never comes out to fight and all about his weak body. On the other side there is Som, never afraid of anyone or anything and we still haven't seen his max. Potential.

G2: oh but what about the seventh one?

G1: nobody has seen him in a long time.
There was an attack on earth by an outer.

G2: what's an outer?

G1: they are rouge inners that wants to destroy earth because of Earth's cruelty on them. And he was never seen after that attack.

G2: did that seventh one died?

G1: I can't really tell nobody has known much about him.

Som: (*shouts)damn you inners.....

#scene shifts to inside of an ancient pyramid.

Inners discussing:

Brad: what do you think will he pull through?

Tom: Bliss said he got broken ribs and torn muscles but nothing life threatening.

Brad: he is one lucky bastard, I mean what was he thinking going to fight him all by himself.

Shrine: he is a kid, it's just his boiling blood.

Tom: he is inexperienced but he is our only chance so we have to have faith in him.

Brad: I don't understand why is he the one. I mean is not he the student of that devil. We cannot even trust him.

#General enters in the room

All inners bow to him

General: I see you don't trust him. But don't you have faith in me?

Brad: it's not like that General. It's just..

General: if you believe me then have faith in him.

Tom: correct and also General is never wrong. so Brad get a hold of yourself.

Shrine: have any one of you seen Mili.

Tom: oh! now that you mention it she was never with us on our way back.

Brad: that idiot girl, she is not thinking to...

#scene shift back to that town

#Som talking with Boss

#Mili comes at Som with speed of sound.

#Som easily dodges and grabs her by her neck with his left hand

Som: I see u are same as ever. Mili the firkin hothead.

*Mili: let go off me u devil I will kill you.
How dare your guys touch him*

*Boss: hey hey hey cool down u brat.
We wouldn't have been so harsh with him if he didn't resisted.*

Som: you know that you are a god and he is a mere human being don't you.

Mili: it doesn't matter. Love has no bounds.

Som: yes it doesn't matter cause I am going to kill you right here. But as a parting gift just tell me where is he so that I can send him to you. You two can enjoy together in hell.

Mili: you are going to hell you devil.

#Som senses Something

#He dodges as Brad comes through portal trying to hit him.

Som: oh you got reinforcements now.

Brad: let go off her you damn evil.

Som: oh we have the General's pet here now

#all the gangsters laugh

#Brads eyes opens wide as he realises Something

Brad: how do you know that phrase?

#Som smiles

#Building breaks here and there and they all look at sky as Shrine comes through the dust and strikes Som on his head with his super hard rock like fist.

Shrine(with wet eyes and slow voice):I didn't really wanted to hit you, why did you have to make me do this Tom.

#Tom comes out of the dust

Tom: like always my calculations were great again. He can sense any fluctuations in Aura but our Shrines warm and my cold Aura added up just perfect to make a negligible output and therefore he got this surprise from Shrine right on the mark.

#Som laughs

Som: sure your calculations were great but you just missed Some information on that Aura part. I can also use it as a defence and attack by making it physical in nature and I can also structure it anyhow I want. The denser the Aura is the harder the object becomes.

#dust clears and it becomes visible that there was a small shield of Aura between his forehead and Shrines fist.

Boss: you alright Som?

Som: like these low life's could sustain a damage to me

Shrine: hey Tom what is this fluctuations and dense object he is talking about?

Tom: it's just as him he also controls Aura.

He have all the properties of him and that outer. Maybe this devil is also the reason he disappeared at first place.

G1: whom are they talking about?

G2: that seventh one idiot

#Brad still had that look of confusion in his eyes.

*#meanwhile Som held onto Milis neck as she struggled and fell unconscious.
He threw Mili to Boss and Boss went to escape.*

Brad (teleports to Boss):where do you think you are taking her

#Som makes an Aura rope and pulls Brad to him with his left hand

Som: your fight is right here void man

#Tom moves a rock with his feet which stops right beside a pile of dry plants that all the gangsters ruined and kept there.

#Meanwhile Shrine starts hitting Som but can't hit through his Aura shields.

#Som punches Shrine with his right hand and Shrine falls a few hundred meters away.

*Som: no matter the Aura thingy my physical capabilities are also too great then you all.
You will need 5 of these Shrines to be equal to me in strength idiots.*

#Shrine goes unconscious

#Som walks towards Tom

He steps on a rock and that rock bursts because of pressure from his feet and a particle from that rock hits the rock misplaced by Tom making a small ignition and it(the ignition) gets caught by the pile of dry plants there causing a rapid fire.

#Som gets caught in the fire

Tom: got you idiot

#Som comes walking through the flames covered in his red Aura with a deadly stare

G2: hey what's this sensation. It's like totally different now from before.

G1: yes, my throat is sore from this sensation. My legs are shaking.

G2: hey wasn't Som using the white thingy before.

G1: maybe it's because of that red thing. I can sense total bloodlust right now.

#scene shifts inside the pyramid

General:, how much time will it take for him to wake up.

Bliss: I joined all of his tearing and cured all the internal bleeding. It's just the after effect of the treatment. His body is taking its rest right now. He will be awake in probably half an hour.

General: I see they are no match for him. I must go to help. Just make sure Chris doesn't show up there.

Bliss: I will make sure of it General

#General starts to levitate in air

Bliss: good luck General

#genral smiles and flies towards the battlefield.

#camera zooms on Chris's mind.

#inside his mind:-

#10 years ago(when Chris was 15)

#inside a cave on a mountain

Chris: sensei, what are we going to train for today. Is it my forearm, no wait maybe my legs, or...

#camera rotates to the guy in front of Chris

Som: no kid, today we are going to train what's most important.

Chris: what's more important than our body.

Som: your body is a mere vessel for your brain which is powered by your heart. So we are going to train you mind and heart today.

*#Som and Chris starts walking toward.
After few steps they stop. They were on a cliff on Himalayas.*

Chris: sensei do not you think we are a bit too much high right now. See how much depth it is down there.

Som: are you afraid of heights Chris?

Chris: no sensei I am not afraid of anything.

Som: well at this much height you should.

*Always remember fear is nothing bad, it is a fuel that you need to push forward.
You don't have to be depressed by it.
Encourage it and overcome it and that's how you will grow.*

Chris: if you say so Sensei, I suppose I am a little bit afraid of heights.

Som: is that so

#Som pushes Chris out of the cliff.

Chris falls on a platform of rocks hanging out of the mountain just a few metres down.

Chris: what the hell sensei, you want to kill me?

Som: as I said we are going to train your mind and your heart today.

You have to climb back up to here.

As you can feel it the air is a lot more thinner than ground here.

Use your air wisely kid or you will end up dead. That will increase your hearts breathing capacity.

And if you fall once you start those rocks are going to fall with you and you will be dead.

Chris: that means I am dead either way.

If I stay here I will die out of oxygen at Some point. And if I climb and fall again these rocks will also fall with me.

Som: correct, now I am going to rest for a while inside the cave.

See you soon.

Chris: you are kind of a jerk Sometimes sensei.

#Som smiles and goes inside the cave.

#a deep and old voice comes from inside the cave

Aura: don't you think you are going a little hard on him.

Som: that's how he will grow master. And don't be that much of a sweetheart for him.

You drowned me for my training. At least he can breathe there.

#Aura smiles

Aura: so how much have you collected.

Som: approximately 59%.

#meanwhile Chris

Chris(in his mind):I can feel my brain going dizzy but if I go and lose consciousness halfway it will be all over for me.

Don't panic, don't panic, don't panic.

#Chris slaps himself and remembers what Som said

#in Som's voice:- ("the moment you start panicking is the moment when you do that thing or else that fear will get stronger and you will be stuck there forever").

#Chris starts climbing

He climbs 2 meters then he placed his foot on a rock and that rock slipped. He fell.

The moment he touched that rock floor beneath that also broke and a loud sound occurred.

Som heard that and comes flying straight to him at twice the speed of sound.

Chris was falling a moment and the next he opened his eyes he was in arms of Som.

Som took him back to the cave

Boss and other gangsters were also there

They started laughing

Boss: I hope you didn't pee in pants pal.

Garō(Som's best friend):he is not a whining bitch like you B and Som you can go a little on him buddy, what if..

Som: do not worry Garō

I knew he was going to fall cause I was the one who placed that rock out of the blue at the perfect place.

Chris: yeah now that I think about it, I stepped on it cause it was like the perfect one at the perfect place. What an idiot I am

Som: kid be happy, remember what I told you this test was for your mind and your heart. See you are breathing much better now than before cause your body has adapted this habitat much faster cause you were in danger.

And you fell(Chris makes a sad face)

That means you didn't stop there and hardened your mind to move forward.

You have overcome that fear now.

Great job kid

Chris(having a proud smile on his face in a loud voice):thank you sensei, you are the best.

Garō: look at him thanking the one who almost murdered him a moment before.

#all of them laughs

Boss: guess it calls for a party tonight

G1,G2,all the other gangsters: yeah yeah

#all in joy

#Som Smiling

#2 years forward(Chris was 17)

Chris: sensei I can't feel my legs anymore, I mean isn't 1000 squats and running up and down a whole mountain twice a bit much.

Som: you tired in only this much, I did 25000 squats and ran up and down the mountain 10 times.

Chris: that's why you are sensei, sensei

Som(smiles):I am going to take a bath now, I will see you at dinner.

#Chris resting on the bench in the garden of their villa

Garou: what's up kid, you look like hell.

Chris: uncle G, it's nothing much just Sensei being Sensei.

Garou: you know Don't think of him as a villain cause he is doing this all for you. Coming times are going to be crucial and you have to be prepared for that.

*Chris: I don't think of him as a villain uncle G
Instead he is the one I look up to, he is my hero and he will be.*

Garou(smiles):you know he was not this strict a long ago.

Chris: come to the think of it from how long do you know each other uncle G.

Garou: we both got chosen at the academy ran by sensei Aura when we were 15. You know I think that's the age from where you start accepting reality.

Chris: I see, and what was sensei like, was he cool or was he a nerd?

Garou: your sensei was like the hottest guy out of all the boys there..

Chris: boys..., Do you mean there were girls too?

Garou: of course, cause our sensei Aura believed girls and boys both endure equally so they can be treated equally too.

Chris: oh

*Garou: back to your sensei
Som was not much of an extrovert.
He always kept his thoughts to him and never let his guard down.
All the girls were frustrated cause he always denied to even to them.
But then*

Chris: Then what uncle?

Garō: I met your sensei.

I was not that good looking and chocolate boy but I was an extrovert, always talking to everyone and getting in problems.

I always said hi to Som whenever I saw him but he always ignored me and walked away until that day.

Chris: what day?

Garō: our class was on a hill and we were all walking on a small strip of rocks hanging out of the mountain.

Som was in the front of the whole line and I was at the last and she was in the middle.

Chris: she?

Garō(smiles):your sensei's first love

Chris: tell me more about her

Garō: for today just keep it to me and Som.

Chris: please uncle.

Garō: so where was I

#Chris makes a sad face and keeps listening

When we were walking there that strip of rocks broke.

There were 11 of us consisting of 6 boys and 5 girls.

All the rocks broke except three

One beneath Som, one beneath her at the middle and one beneath me at the last.

We all held our hands together while walking so when they fell we had to keep holding on or else they would have gone straight to the depths.

We three looked at each other and we knew that with that much strength we cannot pull them back up and also can't keep holding on for long.

But we remembered all our teachings and just thought one thing that if we can't help, we would not let them die.

We made an oath to not to leave there hand even if we can't feel ours anymore.

We held on there for more than an hour. It was like the longest hour of our life.

We talked to each other.

All the ones hanging kept talking about how they are all going to fall and going to die.

But your sensei spoke for the first time, in a loud voice he said

"Shut up you all we will not let you die, I will never let a friend die in front of my eyes, for that to happen death must cross me"

At that moment we got to know for the first time that he had feelings and he always cared for us.

All of our hopes got back after hearing that and after an hour sensei came and told us that was just a test.

That was a test and it was not a real Mountain, it was just a simulation and even if we would have left their hands they would have fallen on a mattress beneath.

But that test made us come closer to each other and after long conversation Som, me and her became best friends.

We were called the (UBT)unbroken trio, we did all our missions together and we are still together now.

Chris: where is she?

#Garou face becomes sad and his eyes starts to wet.

Garou: I told you that was for another time kiddo.

Chris: so which one of you is stronger uncle Garou

*Garou: there is no stronger or weaker between us, we are same person.
If Som dies that means I died and if I died it means he died.*

Chris: I see uncle

*Garou: that's much for now
Go take a bath, eat a lot and sleep.
You got much work to do, relax those muscles of yours.*

#Garou smiles and Chris smiles and walks away too.

*#1 year forward (Chris's 18th birthday):
Chris opens the door of the hall.
He sees Garou lying down there on the floor with blood all over.
There was a red axe piercing through his chest.*

Som was there right beside Garou's dead body holding that axe.

Chris: why, why, why did you kill uncle G sensei

#Som pulls the axe out of Garou and throws it to kill Chris.

#as the axe was about to hit his chest

*#Chris wakes up
#in present time*

Chris: where am I

Bliss: it's alright Chris, you are safe.

Chris: oh Ms. Bliss: it's you.

#both moving around the pyramid

Chris: where are General and the others.

Bliss: They are just out on a survey.

#Chris notices Brad's room.

Chris: as good as I remember Brad doesn't leave the place without a good reason.

#Bliss: sweats out of nervousness

Chris: tell me what's really going on Mrs. Bliss

Bliss: it's your Sensei.

Chris: he is not my sensei anymore and he never was, he was just a clown with a good mask on.

Bliss: they all are fighting him right now

Chris: I have to go there

Bliss: no Chris I can't let you do that.

Chris: this is my fight and I can't stand by others getting hurt because of me.

Bliss: you know they can be only killed by those on the level of god's so there is no need to worry.

*Chris: you say the level of God, you haven't seen that man as close as I have. That man is a menace, he passes that domain of Gods.
He is a pure devil with power even greater than of Gods.*

Bliss: okay we will go but on one condition

Chris: what condition?

Bliss: you will not fight him head on and you will never leave my sight.

#Meanwhile in battlefield

#Som coming out of that flames covered in red Aura

#His right eye became red

Tom(in his mind):how can he not get affected by that fire

But there's no time Tom think, think, think...

We are here for Mili so we should avoid fighting him and go after that Boss guy.

#Shrine waking up

Tom: Shrine keep him busy for us.

Tom: Shrine keep him busy for us

#Shrine looks down in shame

Shrine: I cannot

Tom: What do you mean you cannot, are you afraid of him Shrine?

Shrine: it is not that I am afraid of him but you see I cannot go against Someone who has a pure heart.

Tom: pure heart! Have you lost your mind Shrine, he is the devil that killed all those people.

Shrine: I know but you see I am from a clan of pure hearts and one of our clan traits is we can only get affected by physical attacks of those who have a pure heart.

#meanwhile Som pulls Brad towards him to kill him

He stops

G1: what is happening, why did he stop

G2: look carefully, it looks like he is struggling to control himself.

#Som pushing him away with the help of white Aura rope in his left hand and his right hand pulling that rope to kill Brad.

#Tom analysing everything

Tom: pure heart eh?

Shrine attack him but be sure to not get hit by him while he is in control

Shrine: I don't understand

Tom: I will explain in short, from the looks of it, he has control of two kinds of Aura one that is white and the other one that is red.

When he punched you he was calm and at that time he just used his white Aura that means his white Aura is pure Somehow.

But as you can see how his red Aura lusts for blood and he has to control it ,that red Aura can't be any good.

Which means you will not get affected by the hits while he is partial control.

Shrine: so it's just that he has two heart?

Tom: No, but he has a heart which is very pure on the basis of your clan traits but also a part of that heart is as impure and devil.

Shrine: I understand.

#Shrine runs toward Som and hits him.

Som loses control and leaves the rope and punches Shrine

#Tom(in his mind):let's see if my theory is correct.

-Som's hit connect

-Silence all over

Tom: so it was correct

#Shrine still standing

Shrine hits him back and as Som was not in control he got punched and falls a few metres away.

Som totally loses all control and both of his eyes become red, Brad used the opportunity and escaped making a portal.

The white Aura rope changes into red

He sends it to out of Earth's atmosphere

#Tom chasing Boss and Brad teleports to Tom

Brad: what is he doing genius?

Tom: I cannot tell but one thing for sure is he is gone mad.

#everyone looks into sky

#all of their legs starts to shake

G1: what is this?

G2: what the heck, he is pulling a fricking meteor.

G1(falls on his knees):we all are going to die

#Shrine,Brad and Tom looks into sky and stopped where they were

Brad: if that hits earth, there will be no earth anymore.

Shrine: looks like we have lost.

A voice from the sky: Not while I am here.

Tom: it's, it's General.

#General cuts the rope and hits the meteor into dust.

Som: I will kill you, I will kill you all.

#General goes at full speed and hits Som in the face.

The whole land shook

Som falls unconscious

#in Som's mind

Have I lost?

Is it over?

Voice of a girl*

"What is your name?"

Som: what is this?, where am I?

Garou: we are not going to leave their hands Som

Som: I will never let my friends die

Som realises it: right it is that day of test when sensei fooled us all Girls voice: hey I asked what is your name?

Garou: I just took his name, why are girls so dumb?

Girl: don't come in between you idiot, I am trying to start a conversation here.

Som: my name is Som.

Girl: I am Athena

Som: well this is not a good moment to be doing a chit chat Athena.

*Athena: what are you talking about, there is no better time than this.
This could be our last time talking.*

*Garo: I guess she has a point,
Btw my name is Garo.*

Athena: so Som why are you putting up this act of friends right now

Garo: what do you mean by an act.

*Athena: he never talked to us once since admission
And now he cares as much as he wouldn't let us die?*

Garo: on second thought you are right, why the sudden change of heart Som?

*Som: I am just too bad in showing my emotions from my childhood.
I am just too afraid to let people in my guard.
Whoever knows me or got close to me till now died but now as we are all probably going to die together.
I thought there was no point holding back.*

*Athena: I see but it's people choice if they want to get close to you or not.
You should let them decide.*

*Garo: she is right Som
I would definitely like to know you better.
Hell we can also become best friends.*

Som: best friends?

Athena: count me in too.

*#Scene shifts to one of their UBT(unbroken trio) mission:
Som sitting on ground on his knees with tears in his eyes.*

Garo crying too.

Athena dying in lap of Som

Athena: promise me Something Som

Som: don't speak, backup is on their way.

*Athena: Som I won't be able to hold on for that long.
I want you to know
I always loved you ,from the moment I saw your dedication towards saving your friends. That day what you said melted my heart.*

*Som: I loved you too Athena
I loved you more than my life.*

If you die right now I will die too.

Athena: don't say that Som.

You have to live.

I want you to finish what we started with Sensei.

Sensei chose you over us.

Don't disrespect his decision by saying you will die.

Garou: But Athena you know if any of us dies the rest are good as dead.

Athena: don't say that Garou, I want you to stay by Som's side and help him accomplish what we all started.

Som: Please Athena don't.

Athena: Garou please take care of him for me.

Garou(crying):I will.

#Athena used to wear a white ring, she removed it from her finger and put it in Som's ring finger.

Athena: good bye, my love.

Som: I promise to you I will accomplish it no matter what.

#Som regains consciousness

In his mind

Right, I have to control it, I have to win, I am not going to lose after coming this far.

#Som stands up

Both his eyes comes back to normal.

Som: Hello General.

General: I won't let you destroy this world Som.

Som: you know General you can't defeat me.

General: what are you going on about, I just knocked you out.

Som: that was just the result of my less sleep.

I have trouble sleeping from a long time therefore I just lost control.

But now be sure that I will defeat you as I am back in control.

General: is that so?

#Som closes his eyes and opens the white eyes in both eyes

Everyone except General trembles

*Boss shouts: what are you two idiots waiting for?
Escape while you are alive, things have gone way out of hands now.*

G1 and G2: right, after you Boss.

Tom: Brad open your portal and stop him.

*Brad: I can't ,that Aura rope sucked maximum of my strength.
I barely managed to use it once.
Once more and I will be a goner.*

Tom: I see

(In Tom's mind):this is a fricking town, they all didn't came here flying as only Som can do that. They should have Some kind of base here. He must be going there. If I can just figure out where it is, I can cut the chase and reach there first.

Tom: hey Brad you follow him, I will check those stupid's out.

Brad: right

Tom changes path and after few minutes he corners G2

Tom: Tell me shithead, where is it you are planning to go.

G2(In his mind)

Few years back

Som in Some type of shelter:

*"I want you all to know that your life is the life that's most important at any point. As long as you can all live you can all serve.
I don't want any of you dying for me.
Do you all understand that?"*

All people: yes sir.

#Back to the present

G2: it's the town castle.

Tom: well that's lot easier than I thought.

G2(thinking):well I cannot defeat him, I will just stall him for time then.

#G2 runs to hit Tom

Tom: idiot I figured all the things that you were thinking there's no point really.

*Even if your Boss escapes.
We will just capture that Aura controlling freak and ask him.*

G2: you don't say a word about him you idiot.

#He pulls his punch

*#Tom removes his feet from the rope he was standing on.
And the bucket that was attached to it for passing goods up and down the top floors falls on G2's head.*

#G2 goes unconscious

#Back to the battlefield

Som: well what do you say now General.

#General without his left arm

General: what's to say ,I will defeat you no matter what.

Som: is that so.

#Som throws his rope and pulls Generals leg.

General: goes with the flow and hits Som with full power.

Som: that was heck of a right blow General.

#General grins

#Som grins too

#Som makes a spear out of his Aura

#genral pushes him and teleports to his back and kicks back of his knee

#Som falls on his knees

#General punches the back of his head

#Som falls to the ground

#Som turns over

General: it's time now.

#genral jumps and comes back down at full speed, clinches his fist and as he hits.

#dust all over

Som: well now it is over

#dust clears

#Generals hit disconnected

#Blood falling from his mouth and his chest as the Aura spear went right through his heart.

#General falls over

#Som stood up

Shrine: damn you devil.

#Shrine hits Som at full power.

#Som shields himself with Some of his last resorts.

#Shrine fist blows because of the impact

#shirne clinches his other fist to hit

#Bliss Whispers in his ears "that's enough big boy".

#Chris comes running and hits Som's right knee

#Som falls

Chris punches him on his neck

Som coughs blood

Som was on his knees

As Chris throws his blows again and again

Bliss sees General

Bliss: General don't close your eyes. This wound is nothing General, because of your healing abilities it didn't affect much.

General said "you don't have to lie Bliss " as he closes his eyes.

#Tears fell through her eyes

Bliss: come here Shrine, let's get you hand healed back.

Chris: why, why, why did you do it sensei

There was no reason at all to these things

Were you pretending all along

You never really cared about any of us.

You killed uncle G.

#Som stops Chris's punch

Twist his hand and hit his gut

Chris falls on ground

Som grabs back of his neck

Som stares him right into his eyes

As Chris look into his eyes he stops shouting.

#Tears were falling through Som's eyes

Som: Yes, I did it and there is not really any point to all of this. If you believe that is. But remember one thing. Even If you blame me for all, I want you to know You are like my son, and you are the one person ALIVE whom I love the most kid. You have to hold the torch after me.

Chris: I will not do what you have done

Som: shut up and listen.

Soon you will know the reality of it all and when you understand the reality, Prepare yourself to hold your responsibilities.

All of them will lie in your hands, I am handing this over to you now but remember when the time comes you will be passing it to Someone else.

Choose wisely.

Chris: I don't understand it. I don't want anything from you. Get away from me.

Som: This will all make sense to you soon.

#Som pulls his ring out of his finger and put it onto Chris's finger.

Som: so long kid

As he lost contact with the ring.

Lightings starts to fall, rain starts all of the atmosphere becomes foggy.

#Som and Chris both falls over

#Chris opens his eyes they were both shining white.

#Som opens his eyes too they were both red.

#Chris goes back unconscious again.

#Som stands up makes an red axe out of his red Aura and he pulled his axe back to kill Chris.

Bliss: No...., Chris...

#Lightning falls right next to them.

A person was standing there in a cape.

That man knocks Som unconscious as Som was already very beat.

That man picks Som up.

Wind blowed and his cape fell over.

#Bliss couldn't believe her eyes.

Bliss: is that you "Aura"?

That person flies away taking Som with him.

#Meanwhile Boss reaches the town castle as Brad followed him.

Boss: start the vehicles, we are retreating.

#silence all over.

#Tom comes out of the dark

Tom: hey shithead. You took very long

#Boss runs back to the exit but there was Brad standing.

#Boss looks down

Brad: we cornered you, there is nowhere to go now.

#Boss goes back a few years ago in his memories: -

*Som: I am handing this power to you B. I know you would make good use of it.
Take this as my thanks to your service.*

#Back in present

#Boss looks up and laughs

*Boss: man i didn't really wanted to do this.
But, you left me no choice.*

#Boss chants Something while making Some sign with his hand.

Boss shouts: feel the wrath of my army.

#skeletons comes out of plane ground.

In just a moment there were more than 500 skeletons surrounding them.

#Boss runs towards helicopter escape with having Mili in his arm.

Brad and Tom runs after him but the skeletons blocks their way.

Brad: hey do you think we can defeat all these dead's.

Tom: that's not what I am worried about right now, they are not that strong, but it's their quantity, there are just too much.

#They hear the sound of helicopter

*Brad: That Bastard escaped.
How come he had this power.*

Tom: This seems so familiar though, it's like Tomura's Hell call.

*Brad: Don't take that traitors name.
Just fight these Bastards and make a run for it.*

Tom: right, but if we do not beat every last of them there is a possibility that they might reach civilians and hurt them.

Brad: you are saying we defeat them all.

Tom: yes, that is the best option right now.

Brad: if you say so.

#scene shifts to Som's villa

#Som lying unconscious.

#Aura trying to cut his throat

*Aura: This fricking knives break every time.
His red Auras body armour doesn't let anything cut him even if he is unconscious. It's just as he said, only the other part can kill him now.
I am sorry to do this to you kid.
I promise as long as I live now, I will live for your sake, I will take care of him.
But before that you will have to fight the last battle Som.*

#Boss arrived there with Mili lying unconscious in his arms

Aura: put her on the sofa there

#Boss puts her on the sofa

*Aura: so she is the one that I our body likes.
Well, Chris got himself a goddess.*

Boss: how is Som?

Aura: His conscious is gone just as we thought. His body healed itself using red Auras power.

Boss: If only there was another way, I would have given my own life to save him.

Aura: This could be only done by him, white Aura chose him as the successor.

#scene shifts to the pyramid.

#Brad and Tom came barging asking about how was everyone else.

#Bliss filled them in on the situation

#Chris was unconscious

#Shrine's arm was healed completely

#General was still living but his heart beats were as slow as he was dead. He was in a constant state of coma.

#Inside Chris's mind.

Chris: what's going on?

What is this?

What am I seeing.

Sound comes and he sees Some kind of memories.

Kid Aura: Sensei why are you training me so hard?.

Aura' Sensei: I am going to explain it to you one last time, listen carefully.

You are chosen by the white Aura to become its successor.

I generated this power out of pure feelings, this will only go to those with purest of the hearts.

This power is so strong that if you do not exercise as much as I say, your body will not be able to handle it.

This power is not like any other powers.

It successes to people with pure heart without decreasing it's strength a bit.

You will be able to see my memories after I pass this power on to you. And it would be the same for the generations that comes after you.

Aura: I got it, but what is Tomura doing here again?

Aura's Sensei: well, he enjoys practicing with you. Don't you Tomura.

Tomura: yes sensei, I want to practice as hard as my brother does.

Aura: that's what I am afraid of brother. You shouldn't put this much strain on yourself Tomura.

#memories change

#chaos all over

Aura: what happened sensei, wasn't this supposed to be a succession ceremony for me. Then why is Tomura unconscious.

*Aura's Sensei: Calm Down kid, it seems while transferring white Aura powers it produced Some side products as well.
It's red Aura, it has taken over your brother's body as it was the most suitable.*

#memory changes

*Athena: don't worry Som it will be alright.
It's just Some type of power succession ceremony. Though throughout all of this, I will be holding your hands.*

Garou: yeah, me too buddy.

Aura: you ready Som?

Som: yes sensei, until they both are with me.

#moments later

*Aura: It happened again, white Aura gave its side products, all three of them are unconscious.
It looks like Som got the white Aura.*

There is Some kind of ring on Athena's finger. (the ring she later on passed on to Som while dying and Som gave it to Chris).

I don't know what happened to Garou, but as he is unconscious too, I think he also got Some kind of power.

#Sometime later

Som: Garou did you figure out what power did you get?

Garou: no man, not even a hint.

*Aura: well, we have figured out Athena's ring's power.
It sucks out all of the evil Aura inside the person wearing it and stores it inside of itself.
Which you could later on use as power reserves at desperate times.*

Som: that's a cool one Athena.

Athena: yours way cooler than mine though.

#Chris wakes up, he was gasping.

Bliss: take deep breaths, calm down. Are you alright?

#Chris looks at the ring in his hand, he tries to take it out but he couldn't, it was like stuck to his skin.

Chris: hey Bliss ,I don't feel right.

Bliss: what's happening?

Chris: I can see this energy around you.

It's like your Aura.

Hell, I can even kind of feel it.

Bliss: what do you mean?

Chris: it's like that devil's power are passed on to me Somehow.

I saw it while I was unconscious.

This power was passed on from generations.

First Some old man had it.

Then Aura gramp.

Brad: what! Aura?

Chris: yeah, he is Sensei Som's Sensei.

Tom: why didn't you tell us this before?

Chris: in all this heat and all I didn't felt it was more important than defeating Som.

Brad: How? How could it be?

He vanished years ago and now he is with him

Shrine: what are we supposed to do now?

Tom: we will fight there is nothing else we can do.

Chris: yes, I agree, also I feel this power now. I think I can defeat him now.

Brad: No, I won't fight him.

I believe in Aura, if he is working with Som, I will not fight him.

Shrine: yes, I won't go against him too, I will never fight him. He is like our big brother and he can't be wrong with his judgements.

I will not fight them.

Chris: what about Mili?

You don't want to rescue her?

Brad: rescue? What do you mean, until Aura is there, I bet nothing will happen to her.

Chris: how can you be so sure about it?

Tom: don't worry kid, we know Aura, he definitely would have thought this through.
But yeah, about Som, we will have to defeat him.

Chris: why do you guys know gramp Aura and why do you trust him that much?

Bliss: you see kid.

What you see is not the whole truth.

The earth is a place created by celestials to store the last bit of life. There were many planets in this universe a long ago. All of the planets had their own kind of life.

Every planet had species of its own.

One with dogs, one with cats, one with dinosaurs, one with monkeys and many more.

There was a big planetary collision 10000 years ago.

Most of the other planets were wiped out.

The planet that was still in perfect condition was the planet having monkeys.

So the rest of the surviving species were put in the earth by celestials.

Then they choose eight of us to guard this livestock.

General, Me ,Shrine ,Brad ,Tom ,Mili ,Aura and Tomura were chosen for this.

We belong to the planet which created the power source for every other planets.

That planet is what you might know as Sun.

Only we could survive there, any other species that tried to get close to us, they burned from the heat of the power source.

As we all were able to live in that condition and that close to the power source, we all got Some kind of powers of our own.

There was a big training camp, that trained us to control our powers.

We seven were the best at camp.

General had already passed from the camp few years before then us.

But he was sent on the mission to rescue the life's that were left on other planets.

But there was Some kind of incident and he lost his power.

But, it was decided that he would lead this guarding mission of earth.

They did Some kind of experiment on us and transferred a chunk of our powers to him.

That made him superpower full but it did take its toll.

And his body weakened.

Chris: what do you mean by shortened?

What is your species life span?

Bliss: on average it is about 15-20 thousand earth years.

Chris: what is your age Bliss?

Bliss: don't you know manners idiot. You don't ask a lady her age.

Tom: cut it out Bliss .we are about 10 thousand earth years old and General is about 12 thousand earth years old.

Shrine: he is close to his death and now in this condition how will he survive?

Brad: he just wanted to spend Some of his life like the average Human beings on this planet.

Bliss: even if he survives, he would still have to go through all this god work.

Brad: until he has his powers they will never let him rest.

Tom: what do you say Bliss ?

Which side are you on?

Bliss: I am not on any one's side, my job is to heal you all, either if it's you or them.

Tom: I guess it concludes that only Chris and I are going to fight then.

Brad: Seems so.

#In Som's Villa

Boss: How long is he going to stay asleep?

Aura: I say it's good if he doesn't wake up.

Boss: why would you say that?

Aura: He is already dead B. It's just his body you see now filled with pure evil.

*Boss: No he is still alive and he still is Som,
My idol.*

#Boss remembers his past.

#20 years ago(Boss was 10 years old).

Man 1:See that kid, how disgusting.

Man 2:yeah they are piece of trash, always begging and stealing food.

Boss: I am not a piece of trash.

Man 1:say that again you little brat ,I am going to beat you to pulp if you open that filthy mouth again.

Boss: what wrong did I say?

It's not like I chose to be poor or orphan myself . Only if my parents were alive.

Man 2: you know what, I bet they are alive. They just dumped you in the garbage cause they didn't want a piece of shit as their kid.

Boss: Don't you dare speak anything about my parents you dickhead.

Man 2:what did you say you little shit.

#Man 1 and Man 2 beat Boss and left him bleeding in the back of the street.

Som: was that worth it?

Was it really necessary to get beaten because they were saying Something about the people you don't even know about?

Boss: who are you? You want a punching bag too?

Som: First I want you to answer my questions then I will answer yours.

So tell me, was that worth it?

Boss: I don't know but it just made me angry. It seemed right.

Som: There is a huge difference in being right and being stupid.

Boss: what do you know about it? You didn't have to suffer like I did. You wear that suit which means you are rich. I bet you didn't have to fight for your survival like I did.

If your parents disappear or die only then you will realise.

Som: I know how you feel. If I wear a suit, it doesn't mean I was born rich. And yeah, the one's you were talking about, everyone close to me has already died.

#Boss was speechless.

#He had this look of shame in his eyes.

Som: That's exactly the reason why I will advise you to analyse the situation first.

Until it's not necessary you don't pick a fight. You never turn to violence, even if your whole world is falling apart.

Boss: I did not choose violence, they hit me first.

Som: Kid, violence doesn't necessarily have to be physical. Every word that comes out of your mouth is a very powerful weapon.

Therefore it's wise to choose your words carefully.

Sometimes being silent is the most efficient way out.

#Boss looking down not able to argue with anything.

Som: Now, don't be sad kid.

What do you say about coming and living with me?

Boss: with you?

I don't even know who you are.

Why would I?

Som: I am Som of the UBT.

*Boss: what like of that UBT which was all over TV's and newspapers.
Like the Un Broken Trio?*

Som: well, not so Un broken now.

But, the point is that you want to survive and live a better life style than this?

Boss: yes.

Som: So why don't you work for me. You can stay at my house. You will get salary from time to time.

Boss: I will not have to beg anymore?

Som: yes.

Boss: I still have one more question.

Som: yes, what is it?

Boss: if you saw that they were beating me, why didn't you come out to help me?

Som: why do you think I asked you to work for me. Because of that dedication that you have towards defending Someone that you believe in.

Even though you never knew your parents, you still fought on their behalf. Though it was stupid, it showed me that I could trust you.

#Boss blushes.

Therefore I waited and analysed the whole situation. If it was any worse, I would have come out and helped.

#Som takes him to his villa.

#present time

Boss: Som is still there. He can't be dead.

#Tears fall off Boss eyes.

Boss: He gave me home.

Made me all I am.

He trusted an orphan boy who was begging on streets.

Made me able to live the life I wanted.

Aura: I know how it feels B, I saw that boy grow up and I see why he trusted you.

He will always live in there

#Aura points at B's heart.

His life was way worse than yours, he knew how it felt. He could not help himself, but he always tried to help everyone else he could.

#Mili wakes up

She sees around and panics, she silently stood up and started running. While she took her stance, she saw Aura standing in front of her.

She stopped and the next moment Boss was there holding a knife at her neck.

Aura: stop B, I will handle this while you go and get Some rest.

#Boss walks away.

Mili: Aura? But how?

We all thought you were dead.

Aura: I was just looking for my successor and when I found him, I took my rest and I couldn't catch up with you guys because of Some certain conditions.

Mili: what successor and what conditions Aura?

We were looking for you everywhere.

Brad never stopped thinking about you for a second. we all were worried like crazy but you never showed up.

We believed you died in that fight but only Brad believed you were alive.

Aura: I see. I am truly sorry about that.

I suppose you remember while you all left to meet up with your families back at our planet. I and Tomura were the only ones that stayed here because we were family to each other and Someone had to stay back so we both did.

A series of events happened and Tomura snapped. It was a huge fight and the end of it lead to all the things happening right now.

Mili: But we just left for a month.

Aura: don't you remember a day at our planet means a month at earth.

So when you thought you left for a month, it was 30 months at earth.

So for us, two and a half year it was.

Mili: why did he snap?

Aura: you see he took a liking to a girl here.

He loved her more than anything but when he confessed he got to know that girl already loved a certain human being. That lead to death of that girl and then that human took revenge.

That turned out to be Tomura's last fight.

Mili: you are telling me Some human defeated Tomura?

A inner?

A god?

Aura: you can say that.

Mili: I wonder how strong that human being was.

Also, how charming a girl could be that a god Fell in love with her.

Aura: That girl's charm was like no others.

Mili: how do you know that?

Aura: she was a student of mine.

Mili: what was her name?

Aura: Her name was..

#Aura took a deep breath

Her name was Athena.

Mili: what was the boy's name?

Aura: Som.

#Everything got silent.

Mili: Som?

The one?

Aura: yes the one who you all are fighting and the one who taught your lover.

#it was all quiet for a bit, Mili had no words.

Som's judgement are never wrong, he accepted you.

Mili: accepted?

He almost killed me during the fight.

If Brad and others hadn't come, I would have been long gone.

Aura: still naive as ever.

Mili: what do you mean?

Aura: if he wanted to kill you he could have in an instant but as much as I know him.

Did he question you about Something?

Mili: yes, he asked me why I loved Chris.

Aura: he tested you and probably he was satisfied with your answer.

He knew if you were conscious you would fight him and he wouldn't want to hurt his daughter-in-law therefore he knocked you out and sent you to safety.

#Mili was shocked.

Mili: I get it now though daughter-in-law was kind of weird.

Aura: well he thinks of Chris as his son so you must relate to him as that.

Mili: But, there is still a problem that a god couldn't marry a human being.

Aura: don't worry Som thought that out too.

He handed all of his powers that were originated on the source planet by my Sensei to Chris and hence he is a god too now though I am not sure that Chris knows about it.

Mili: what?

But he wanted to kill Chris.

Aura: No he just wanted to lure him out to hand him out his powers though Chris saw Something he wasn't supposed to and after that he refused to meet with Som even once in his life(referring to death of Garo).

#Tears falling from Mili's eyes

Mili: He was the person I hated the most in my life. I hated his guts without ever knowing that he was thinking our good.

Aura: Don't cry Mili, we are god's we are not supposed to cry for mere human beings.

Mili: I am in so much guilt right now that I cannot even express in words. I can only express it by my tears as I don't have words for my foolishness.

#Aura(thinking): this is her when she only knew what he did for her. if I would tell her how much he sacrificed and suffered it would break her, it is best not to tell right now.

Mili: I know, I am going to tell Chris to apologise and then we will all live happily together.

Aura: That sounds very amusing but that is not quite possible now. Som handed his power out but still Chris needs to defeat and kill Som.

Mili: why does it have to be that way?

Why would he have to die?

Aura: just believe me that is not possible.

I need you to go and tell Chirs and others the next fight would be in 3 hours at the pyramid.

As Som is probably going to wake up in that long.

Mili: why do they still have to fight?

Aura: just think of it as Som's dying wish and don't tell anyone a thing I told you.

Chris needs to be as angry as he was before to defeat Som.

Tell them that you managed to escape from here Somehow.

Mili: I really don't want to do this but if that's his wish I will do it.

Aura: now go and alert them for what's coming.

#Mili took stance and started running and in the next blink she was there.

In the pyramid ,they were all sitting in a circle talking to each other.

They saw Mili.

Standing in front of them.

Mili: Hey guys.

Brad: what? Mili? How?

Chris: are you okay Mili?

Are you hurt Somewhere?

Mili: No, I am alright. I managed to escape out of there.

Chirs: I would kill those bastards for this.

#Mili held her tears and stood there in silence.

Mili: I have an Intel.

Shrine: what Intel?

Mili: I heard them talking. Som is going to come here in 3 hours for his final fight.

Tom: But why after 3 hours? Why not now?

He must be in a bad condition isn't he?

Mili: yes, I heard he was unconscious.

Tom: Then our best time to attack them would be right now. when they are weak.

Brad: but that is the case other way around too. You are also not in a good shape.

Bliss: you should relax and heal a bit too as it is only going to be you and Chris fighting him.

Mili: what? Why only them?

Shrine: Mili we can't fight against big brother Aura. You know that much too.

Mili: so, you know about him helping Som.

Tom: How long do you think will it take us to heal enough to fight?.

Bliss: I say at least

2 hours.

Chris: okay then, we will head out as soon as 2 hours pass. Then take him out while he is still weak.

Tom: Mili are you going to join us?

Chris: no, she would not join us. I won't let her.

Mili: But i want to be with you...

Chris: Stop Mili, you are not going to that hell with us.

Mili(thinking): it's not that I want to fight him with you. It is certain that you will win. I do not know if you can handle the truth or not. I want to be there for you in that moment.

I will head out after them then.
Bliss: let's relax guys. We all are just too exhausted.

#everyone sleeping in the hall.
#Chris was awake because of a constant pain in his head.
It was like memories flooding in his head that weren't his own.
He sat and waited for 2 hours thinking why his Sensei did all this. Why Som turned this way.
Though thinking about Garo raged his anger and he wanted to kill Som even more.

#after 2 hours

Tom: you okay Chris?
Chris: yes, i am feeling much better now.
Tom: Then let's head out.
Chris: yes let's Go.
#Mili followed them while others were slept.
They were sprinting towards Som's Villa.
After about 15 minutes they reached the boundaries of the Villa.
Just in front of the gate they saw a person standing there, waiting for them.
#It was Boss.
#Behind him there were every single gang and gangsters that existed to that point.

Tom: you just called thousands of humans to kill two of us. You think that would be enough?
Boss: I didn't know there will be only two of you fools. I can handle you myself.
Tom: Chirs we don't have much time, I will handle them all myself, you should go ahead.
Chris: no, you can't take them on, there are too many and also I wanted to test my powers a little bit.
You take on B, I can't fight with him.
I will take on the rest.
Tom: okay but we have to wrap it up quickly, I would be done in like 5-10 mins, you should better hurry up too.

#they run towards each other

#Chris in front of 3000 gangsters and Tom in front of Boss.

Chirs heads towards the crowd straight on.
He makes a very dense stick of white Aura and starts knocking them out.

#Meanwhile

Tom: hurry it up shithead. I have to go kill your master too.
Boss: that is when you can cross me you weakling.
#Tom starts thinking about how to defeat him.
#Boss shouts and chants his hell call.
#1 million skeleton comes out of the ground on the spot covering the area of 5 km.
Tom: hey Chris! It might take more than 5-10 mins.
Thinking is no use now, I just have to use my strength from all the strict training by General, Now.
#He heads on fighting the skeletons.

#Chirs has beaten around 1000 members who had all different fighting techniques and weapons in about 10 mins.
After that Chris gets careless using his powers and uses much more than he could handle at once.

He passes out and his stick vanishes.

#Tom saw him pass out.

Tom(shouts): Mili you just going to watch or help too?

Mili(shocked):how does he know I am here, I can't be seen from here. Well, he is the big brain.

Mili runs and takes Chris out of there and runs to a safe place at Some distance while all the other members followed them.

#Tom sees that Boss was controlling all the skeletons so if he knocks Boss out all the skeletons will stop. But the hard part was to reach Boss. It was like every single skeleton was attached to Boss directly.

#Meanwhile in Chris's mind.

Where am I?

Oh! It's another memory of Som.

#Som and Garo taking rest after training together.

Som: you figured out what's your power yet?

Garo: actually, I did.

Som: what? What is it? When?

Garo: the other night when I was sleeping. It was more like a dream but it seemed rather real.

Som: then why didn't you test your powers?

Garo: I can't. Not right now.

Som: well what is it?

Garo: when I slept I was on my bed but when I opened my eyes I was Somewhere else. It felt like heaven and hell at the same place.

There were angels and as well as devil's.

There was like head of all of them.

He told me that my power was.

#Garo stops talking and thought about it:

In Garo's mind:

Head: Garo your power is an extra life, whenever you die you can come back once.

Garo: can't I make Someone else comeback in my place.

Head thinks about it and tells him:

Yes it is possible but in that case the person that got revived would have a disability and that disability depends on how long the person has been dead. As long as the time gap as big as the disability.

#Garo tells Som

Garo: he told me that I could bring Someone dead back to life but they would have a disability for rest of their life.

Som: can't you just bring yourself back?

Garo: No, i can't.

Som: so who are you thinking to bring back?

Is it her?

#Chris wakes up

Mili: hey, are you ok?

Chris: yeah, i am fine.

How long was I out for?

Mili: about 20 minutes.

Chris: we only have half an hour left, we have to hurry it up.

Mili: what if you pass out again?

Chris: it doesn't matter I have to kill him before he wakes up.

#Mili was also suffering as she knew everything but she couldn't tell Chris.

Mili: they are coming

Chris: let's do this then.

Let's have half of them each.

Thousand for you and thousand for me.

Mili: you know I can handle them all myself.

Chris: I know but I just wanted to compete with you for a long time and if I die today I won't get a chance.

Mili: don't say that or I will kill you myself.

Seriously? a competition between a flight.

Chris: let's go then.

#Both runs towards them.

Chris makes nun chucks out of his Aura this time and Mili used her supersonic speed.

#meanwhile

Boss and Tom in front of each other

Boss: you defeated them sooner than I expected.

Tom: I will have my payback for last time now.

Boss: you are one overconfident fellow, aren't you?

Tom: if you had a brain like me you would have been like me too.

Boss: well let's see if your brain can defeat me or not.

Tom plans a combo to attack him with.

Tom runs towards him and pulls his punch.

Boss hits him straight into his face.

Boss: you idiot.

Even a kid can fight better than you.

Tom: how could you know what combo I was going to use.

Boss: Som taught me how to fight.

He alone exceeds the ability of every one of you.

That includes you too, you fool.

I know every fighting techniques you are going to use.

I can handle five you at the same time.

Tom: let's see who wins than, shouldn't we.

#after 15 minutes

Chris: It took too much time.

Mili: yeah, there were tough ones in them too.

Chris: beside everything, Som trains really well.

Mili: no kidding.

Chris: though, I lost to you.

Mili: cheer up, you just got your powers, you are still adjusting to them.

Chris: let's go back, we just have 15 minutes.

#They head back

Mili: Tom should have handled him by now.

Chris: don't take B too lightly Mili.

*#They reach the gate of Villa.
They were shocked.
Both Tom and Boss were unconscious.
Blood was flowing out of them like water.*

*Mili: I am going to go bring Bliss here.
Chris: I just have 10 minutes so I am going to go find him and kill him.*

*#Mili runs back to the pyramid.
Chris runs inside the villa.
He was looking everywhere for Som.
He stops and tries to sense him with his Aura.
As soon as he sensed it.
He was shaken, frozen by fear.
He turned back and there was Som standing behind him.*

*Som's eyes were red
There was red Aura covering him all over Chris made a hammer out of his Aura and hit Som on his head.*
